

THE GLOBAL PARTY™

LINKING THE WORLD FOR A WORTHY CAUSE

Press Release:

The Global Party 2015 is a charity banquet for all!

The Global Party, really is one invitation to rule them all and this year it is an invitation to a global banquet! The Global Party invites people from across the world to dine for a good cause.

After 5 years, The Global Party has reached over 311 cities – with events taking place in extraordinary locations like, The Orient Express Train to the mountain tops of Ethiopia and from the golden beaches of Miami to dancing with the dinosaurs at London's Natural History Museum. With hundred's of charities including ; The Mayor's Fund for London, and smaller, local charities including Children's Cancer Centre Lebanon, Miami's UCP Baby House Project, The Mexican Red Cross and Singapore's charity Make a Wish have all benefitted from The Global Party and in some particular cases the charities have even been matched with new patrons.

The mission of The Global Party is to unite the world in a common aim to change the charity initiative by uniting people, locations and charities together ; Uniting the four corners of the globe in a charity endeavor, The Global Party is a worldwide event raising funds and awareness for hundred's of charities large and small.

So far The Global Party is delighted to announce a total of £2 million NET Profit raised for hundreds of charities across the world. To complete the visionary endeavor and develop on the original concept, The Global Party is proud to announce an exciting development in 2015: The Global Party is partnering with leading restaurants globally. This promises to be a global charity game changer !

In an unprecedented move The Global Party 2015, is now open for all those who enjoy fine dining, partnering with some of the best and most renowned restaurants across the globe.

With 25% of the total restaurant turnover donated to charity from the date of their hosted Global Party event across March, June or September, The Global Party aims to create an exciting gourmet experience that gives back to those most in need, with small to medium charities benefitting from local and global exposure, as well as much needed funds and essential support at no cost to them.

Whether travelling abroad for a gourmet delight or enjoying your local favorite, whether entertaining for business or treating your family, be it a table of 2 or a feast for 30; throughout the whole of March , June and September, eat out at any of the partnering restaurants safe in the knowledge that you are giving back to charity.

David Johnstone, CEO and Founder of The Global Party, earns international respect for his extraordinary charity concept 'linking the world for a worthy cause' proudly announces that 'Giving back has never tasted so good'.

The Global Party guests will also have the exciting opportunity to purchase tickets to The Global Charity Trust's Prize Draw, which offers the likes of 5* luxury holidays at The Shelbourne, £8K Saville Row Bespoke suit, or a luxury dining experience where the head chef of Roast prepare's and serve's in the luxury of your own home an extravaganza meal for up to 10 friends. The Prize Draw is wonderful partnership where the Luxury industry support philanthropy.

With some of the most famous locations and cities across the world; from Paris to New York, Shanghai to London, Mumbai to Cape Town, The Global Party reaches around the world with over 450 luxury partnerships to date.

Now in 2015, with The Global Party, by eating locally you can be global, as people unite in the 'Largest Global Dinner Party' that stretches around the world! Join the international elite and stand beside the likes of Gordon Ramsey, Bryan Ferry, Eddie Jordon and Lily Cole to make charity a delightful gourmet thrill.

Websites and links of interest:

The Global Party - theglobalparty.com

Key-2 Luxury - key2luxury.com

The Global Party Channel - theglobalparty.tv

The Movement Magazine - themovement365.com

The Global Charity Trust - tgct.org

The Prize Draw - theprizedraw.com