G. Nasrallah Fourrures supports the Children's Cancer Center of Lebanon

: Saturday, September 06 - 2014 @ 09:37

G. Nasrallah Fourrures, Lebanon's renowned luxury fur boutique established in 1952, joined the Global Party's first VIP event in Lebanon, organized by the Children's Cancer Center of Lebanon (CCCL) in collaboration with Phoenicia Intercontinental Beirut to raise funds for the treatment of kids with cancer at (CCCL). Sunset Rendezvous, one of The Global Party's invite-only VIP charity events and the first of its kind in Lebanon, was held on September 3rd at Amethyste Lounge, Phoenicia Intercontinental Beirut.

All united with one common charitable cause, socialites, select people, celebrities, and VIPs gathered to attend one of this year's global parties that were held in over 360 different cities. In support of this astounding cause, a Fur Fashion Show by G. Nasrallah boasting the latest collection of fine fur coats, jackets, and other accessories was the center of entertainment, of which 5 items were auctioned with all the proceeds donated to CCCL. The over $12,000 valued items included a white mink stole, a pastel mink jacket, a mahogany mink hat, a mahogany minkails stole, and a brown mink bag. The event also included six live cooking stations, a raffle draw, and a walk-in closet by international Lebanese designer Georges Hobeika.
