

THE GLOBAL PARTY™
LINKING THE WORLD FOR A WORTHY CAUSE

Press Release: The Global Party 2015 is a charity banquet for all, stretching around the world!

The Global Party really is one invitation to rule them all and this year it is an invitation to a global banquet! The Global Party invites people from across the world to dine for good causes throughout March, June and September.

After 5 years The Global Party has reached over 311 cities – with events taking place in extraordinary locations from, The Orient Express Train to the mountain tops of Ethiopia and from the golden beaches of Miami to dancing with the dinosaurs at London's Natural History Museum. Hundreds of charities including, The Mayor's Fund for London, Make-a-Wish Foundation Singapore, and smaller, local charities including Children's Cancer Centre Lebanon, Miami's UCP Baby House Project, The Mexican Red Cross benefitted from The Global Party and in some particular cases the charities have even been matched with new patrons.

The mission of The Global Party is to unite the world in a common aim to change the charity initiative by uniting people, locations and charities together. Uniting the four corners of the globe in a charity endeavor, The Global Party is a worldwide initiative raising funds and awareness for hundreds of charities large and small.

So far The Global Party is delighted to announce a total of £2 million NET Profit has been raised for hundreds of charities across the world.

To complete the visionary endeavor and develop on the original concept, The Global Party is proud to announce an exciting development in 2015: The Global Party is partnering with leading restaurants globally. This promises to be a global charity game changer!

In an unprecedented move, The Global Party 2015 is now open for all those who enjoy fine dining, partnering with some of the best and most renowned restaurants across the globe.

With 25% of the total turnover on a selected date or up to 5% of the entire month is kindly being donated by the owners to charity during March, June or September. The Global Party aims to create an exciting gourmet experience that gives back to those most in need, with small to medium charities benefitting from local and global exposure, as well as much needed funds and essential support at no cost to them.

Whether travelling abroad for a gourmet delight or enjoying your local favorite, whether entertaining for business or treating your family, be it a table of 2 or a feast for 30; throughout the whole of March, June and September, eat out at any of the partnering restaurants safe in the knowledge that you are giving back to charity.

David Johnstone, CEO and Founder of The Global Party, earns international respect for his extraordinary charity concept 'linking the world for a worthy cause' and proudly announces that 'Giving back has never tasted so good'.

Guests will also have the exciting opportunity to purchase tickets to The Prize Draw - which offers the likes of 5* luxury holidays at The Shelborne, an £8K Saville Row Bespoke suit, or a luxury dining experience where the head chef of Roast prepares an extravaganza meal for up to 10 friends in the comfort of your own home.

With some of the most famous locations and cities across the world, from Paris to New York, Shanghai to London, Mumbai to Cape Town, The Global Party reaches around the world with over 450 luxury partnerships to date.

Now in 2015, you can be global by eating locally as people unite in the 'largest global dinner party' stretching around the world!

Join the international elite and stand beside the likes of Gordon Ramsay, Bryan Ferry, Eddie Jordan and Lily Cole to make charity a delightful gourmet thrill.
