SPREAD THE LOVE AND THE MONEY

A new initiative has been launched that allows diners to book a table at their favourite local eatery or top London restaurant via a free app and donate cash to a charity of choice while they're at it. ChariTable is paid £2 per diner by the reserved restaurant and £1 of that is then passed on to the charity. There are more than 7,500 charities listed so far. As for venues, the choice is wide: in the borough alone you can book at A Cena (Twickenham), the King's Head and Retro (Teddington), the Olympic Studios, the Bull's Head and Sonny's Kitchen (Barnes), the Petersham and Petersham Nurseries, the Glasshouse and Linnea (Kew) and the Victoria (East Sheen). Until Oct 31 ChariTable will increase donations to £1.50.
