CHARITABLE CHOWING DOWN

Like eating out? Like giving to charity? Then do both at once by booking your next restaurant meal via ChariTable. A £1 donation is made for every person in your party to a charity of your choice - and because the donation is made by the restaurant, there's zero cost to you. There are nearly 8,000 restaurants across the UK signed up to the scheme, and there's a ChariTable cookbook too, it's £40 with £5 going to your choice of thousands of charities. Eating out has never felt so virtuous.
